

How you can invest in the future of MU Australia through a bequest in your Will.

A bequest made through your Will is a worthwhile and meaningful way of showing you care. By making a bequest to MU Australia, you will be making an investment in our ability to continue to uphold the aims and objects of Mothers' Union.

Bequests are not confined to estates and money

Although the most common form of bequest is a specified sum of money, or the whole or portion of someone's estate, giving can be through:

- Real estate and furniture
- Personal effects such as jewellery, art and other collections
- Insurance policies
- Stocks and shares, or other investments

Formalising your bequest

Your legal adviser or trustee can give assistance in formalizing your bequest. Although wills, and associated bequest information, need not be exhaustive the wording must be clear.

Points to remember are:

- Ensure names are correct (ie your own name as well as the names of the beneficiaries). In the case of MU this would be: MU Australia Endowment Fund
- Stipulate what is being given (eg whole or part of assets).

If you wish your bequest can be designated as a memorial to yourself or to someone else.

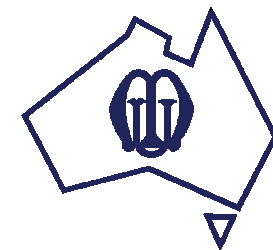

A lasting gift

A bequest to the MU Endowment Fund is your opportunity to make a final lasting gift to support those who will carry our Lord's message of hope to future generations. It is a meaningful way of building on the commitment made to Mothers' Union during your lifetime.

A WILL IS A LASTING REFLECTION OF YOUR LIFE AND YOUR BELIEFS

How a Bequest can ensure the future of MU Australia

Do you have a Will?

Many people prefer not to think about the time when they will no longer be here, yet they do have firm ideas of what they would like to see happen to the assets they have acquired during their lives.

But over half of all adult Australians don't have a valid Will. This means that someone else will be appointed to decide what happens to their assets when they die.

By having valid, up to date Will, you will ensure that your wishes are carried out. After you have taken care of your family and loved ones, you can also make a real difference to the lives of many other people.

The continuing work of MU Australia depends on its members responding to God's blessings. Through a bequest, many people are able to give more than was possible during their lifetime.
